BSL Video Editing & Translation

Our BSL Video Editing & Translation service offers a flexible approach for organisations to ensure that written, audio or digital content is made accessible for deaf people, whatever their communication preference. Using only experienced BSL translators, we work with a wide range of content.

The BSL Video Editing service includes:

- Subtitles & Voice overs
- Text modification
- Transcripts – audio or video recordings without subtitles made accessible in Verbatim or Plain English
- Editing – Green screen, simple graphics, and video-in-video services
- Translations – BSL/English translations into either language

These services enable organisations to meet statutory requirements for providing access to information for deaf users. Our translations are suitable for internal and external web access and can be branded to match the organisation.
